Did You Know?

Once your third dart is thrown, your score becomes official once the first of either A) the chalker calls your score or B) five seconds elapses? (ADO Rule #35). For example, you throw your third dart and it's barely hanging in; the chalker immediately calls your score of 45 and two seconds later the darts falls out. Your score is 45. In the same example, the chalker is having problems adding and your dart falls out of the board after about 7 seconds. Your score would still be 45, as five seconds had elapsed. Still using the same example, you throw your third dart, the chalker does not call your score, and your dart falls out after three seconds; your score would be the total of the two remaining darts in the board. For a dart to count, the tip must be TOUCHING the bristle of the board (note: it does not have to be IN the board, merely touching the bristle). No dart may be touched prior to the decision of the chalker (ADO Rule #34).

If you make a mistake writing down a number PLEASE don't try to over-write the number. Draw a line thru the incorrect number and write the correct number down next to it. Many times I have a hard time trying to figure out what the number really is if you overwrite it. Thanks!

If you have an Email address but are not being notified each week when the stats are uploaded to our Web Site drop me a note at my Email address below and I will gladly add your name to my list. I keep trying to get everybody's Email address for the N.O.D.A. Names/Addresses file.
